Join us for this important presentation on the housing resources available to Virginia adults with developmental disabilities as part of the Settlement Agreement with the U.S. Department of Justice. Learn what integrated and independent housing means; how to refer individuals for these housing resources; and what steps can be taken to prepare for transition to independent housing.

Jeannie Cummins Jeannie Cummins has over 25 years of public and private sector experience in community-based services to make affordable housing available to people with developmental disabilities. She currently supports individuals as they transition into their own homes and develops partnerships at the local/regional levels to identify and facilitate access to housing resources.

The evening is free and open to all Adults.

Childcare is not provided.

RSVP appreciated but not required.
